Stolen Hisson

- In elemen and bush of a first,
  With sever a sound to be heard,
  But a banch of line in the glean
  As the line and never a wirel;
  The other will rear repeat,
  Breaking the elemen in testin,
  School blesses or always week,
  And force be sever in rain!
- For a kies would a maiding wake.

  From the charm of a dreamful sleep,
  And a banch of the love would break.
  The pract that the bine spec keep.
  For ever the edds shall greet,
  Like song of a reposing rain.

  Soulin kines are always aweet,
  And fore is never to vain!

- When hearts and lipe have grown cold, and here lives but for an hour; When life's semanter has been told, and known have ince their power. They shall soft memory fleet. You have a dream to exchain.
- et einlen klebes are always sweet, And love is never in valu. -G. C. Biapham
